

Inquiring about organisation history

Thinking back over your time in the organisation, what has happened that has been most interesting?

What stories have you heard about the organisation relating to past changes?

Describe an incident that you witnessed which captures the nature of your experience of working here?

What stories did you hear about the organisation before you joined it?